(E) Consideration of Cases on Appeal and Oral Argument:

(1) 12:40 PM, claim #5061, Sweet vs. Cortellesso, exceptions filed by the respondent. Due to the respondent being unable to get a flight in time for the appeal, a continuance was granted and this appeal will be rescheduled for June 14, 2006 at 12:40 PM;

(2) 01:00 PM, claim#5346, DeJesus vs. Beverly, exceptions filed by the respondent. The Board waited for the respondent who failed to appear. The claimant was represented by counsel and requested that the Board only modify the date. The claimant was satisfied with the order issued. The Board on a motion by Mr. Furey and seconded by Mr. Caldwell unanimously upheld the decision rendered by the Commission. The respondent has (20) days from today to complete work and the maximum amount of fines, $6,600 is to be imposed on him;

(3) 01:20 PM, claim #5413, Short vs. Vieira, exceptions filed by the respondent. Both parties were in attendance and both were represented by legal counsel, the claimant by Joseph Palumbo and the respondent by Seth Perlmutter. After listening to exceptions a motion by Mr. Furey and seconded by Mr. Gianlorenzo the Board denied the motion to vacate and upheld the decision of the hearing officer. The vote by the Board was unanimous;

(4) 01:40 PM, registration #22397 & #3288, Daniel Dozois, motion to reinstate a revoked registration. For the last (3) months the Board has put on the calendar this request and noticed the respondent of the date and time this matter was to be heard and the respondent has failed to appear on all (3) occasions. The Board on a motion by Mr. Carlone and seconded by Mr. Brunetti elected to table this matter for one year before further considering this action. In that pending fines had yet to be paid on claims, those fines would be pursued by the Board;

(5) 2:00 PM, claim #5445, McLaughlin vs. Campbell, exceptions filed by the respondent, who failed to appear. His notice which was sent certified mail was returned to the Board on

5/9/06. The Executive Director for the Board called the respondent's office to remind him of the appeal by leaving him a message. The claimant was in attendance and was satisfied with the decision of the hearing officer. The Board, on a motion by Mr. Carlone and seconded by Mr. Gianlorenzo upheld the decision of the hearing officer but increased the fines assessed against the respond to the maximum amount of $4,500. The motion passed unanimously.

(G) Old Business:

- (1) Review of Regulation and Laws Standards: Since last Board meeting, no committees have met to report to the Board, pending progress of legislation;
- (2) Legislation: See attached list;
- (3) Workers Compensation: Question from last month regarding family members, if required to be covered; answer yes unless a waiver is signed and filed;
- (4) Staff: An investigative position should be posted within the next week, so the position which was vacant since 7/10/05 can now be filled;
- (5) Study Commission: The Commission has not met since the general assembly extended the reporting dead line until May of 2007;
- (6) Meeting: The chair, vice-chair, Roger Warren and the executive director of the Board met to draft up suggested changes for Representative Lima's Committee.

(H) New Business:

- (1) Budget: Still awaiting action on budget submitted. Finance committee still has to review state budget;
- (2) Claim #484: A review of the matter of Jacques Cousineau vs. Kevin Sweet, d/b/a General Builders Co. shows a stipulation was agreed to as the final order issued by the Board. The question was brought to the Boards attention that the stipulation required upon completion the matter be dismissed with prejudice. Legal counsel informed the Board that this means the final order is dismissed and cannot be resurrected or revived. The Board, upon discussion, felt that it didn't mean to be removed from the record because it was a final order, it was reportable on the Boards web-site. The Board unanimously agreed to keep this matter on record;

(3) Waiver of Jury Trial Form: Continued until next month for discussion on a couple of points before implementation;

(4) Insurance Information on Web: Matter continued until next month.
